

Recruiting and Supervising Volunteers: A Training to Maximize Your Volunteer Team

4-Hours Professional Development in Ashland & Barron

Do you have a plan for successful volunteer engagement? Could you benefit from a discussion on how to maximize your volunteer resources? This training is designed for both new volunteer managers and those wanting to review best practices and strategies to recruit and manage volunteers. You will learn how to design a well-organized program structure, develop ways to effectively reach volunteers, and understand what it takes to be a successful volunteer supervisor.

Take advantage of this no-cost opportunity sponsored by Marshfield Clinic Health System AmeriCorps Volunteer Wisconsin. Workshops led by experienced MAVA trainers using curriculum developed by content expert, Betty Stallings.

Register today using the links below or by calling 715-221-8400. Space is limited.

Date	Time	Location and Details
April 17, 2020	10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Hour break for networking and lunch on own	Vaughn Library 502 Main St. West, Ashland, WI 54806 Training session is limited to 30 Link to register: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/WV7MRF8
April 24, 2020	10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Hour break for networking and lunch on own	Barron Electric Cooperative Community Room 1434 WI-25, Barron, WI Park on right side of building Training session is limited to 50 Link to register: https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/V8Q25SN

"Great presentation! Both wonderful and informative. The most helpful things I learned were new ways to engage/recruit more volunteers, how to better create volunteer positions and tips for leading effective trainings."

~2019 Training Participant

Marshfield Clinic
Health System

